The Racha Islands offer a rare balance between adventure above the surface and exploration below. Known for their clear waters and rich marine life, these islands are an ideal setting for both fishing and diving experiences just a short cruise from Phuket. Cast a line in open water or along reef edges where the sea is alive with movement, then slip beneath the surface to discover coral gardens, vibrant fish, and calm blue depths. Between moments of action, the pace naturally slows—quiet anchorages, wide horizons, and time to enjoy the simplicity of life at sea. Racha delivers a seamless day where sport, discovery, and relaxation unfold effortlessly in one of the Andaman's most pristine environments.
